Cookout History

Cook Out was founded in 1989 by Morris Reaves in Greensboro, North Carolina. The restaurant quickly became popular for its fresh, char-grilled burgers, Southern-style BBQ, and more than 40 unique milkshake flavors. Within the first decade, Cook Out expanded to 10 locations across North Carolina.

Over the years, Cook Out has grown to more than 300 locations across 10+ states, including South Carolina, Virginia, Georgia, and Tennessee. In 2015, many locations began offering dine-in services, further enhancing the customer experience.

Known for its iconic Cook Out Tray — featuring customizable combos at affordable prices — the brand remains family-owned and is celebrated for its quality, freshness, and value.
